Comparative Perspectives On Imperialism And Empire In Late Imperial Russia

Imperialism is policy or ideology of extending a nation's rule over foreign nations, often by military force or by gaining political and economic control of other areas. Imperialism was both normal and common worldwide throughout recorded history, the earliest examples dating from the mid-third millennium BC, diminishing only in the late 20th century.

An empire is a large polity which rules over territories. In contrast to a federation which is an extensive state voluntarily composed of autonomous states and peoples, an empire is a multi-ethnic or multinational state with political and military dominion of populations who are culturally and ethnically distinct from the imperial ruling ethnic group and its culture.

This is in contrast to a federation which is an extensive state voluntarily composed of autonomous states and peoples. An empire is a large polity which rules over territories.
